OTHER

Commissioner Samide and Commissioner Albert reported on the "Ohio Lawyers Give Back" Dworken & Bernstein Company L.P.A. event they attended on July 18, 2008. A plaintiff from Geauga County filed suit and lawyers brought a class action suit against Grange Mutual Insurance which took about ten years to resolve. Judge Forrest Burt tried the case in Geauga County. When it was time to give back the money many members of a class action suit could not be found, or they moved, remarried or passed away. In nearly all cases the monies go back to the defendant if the members of the suit cannot be found. To address this situation courts are using "cy pres" which means "as nearly as possible" which allows the court or the parties by agreement to put a beneficial use to the monies. $14 million, the largest cy press distribution of this type in U.S. history, was presented to 34 charities and organizations making a crucial difference every day in their communities. $443,000.00 was received by Geauga County for courthouse renovation and another $443,000.00 was received by United Way 2-1-1 Geauga County. The Geauga County Courthouse Improvement Fund was created to receive private donations for the purpose of restoring the historical dignity of the courthouse while enhancing the courthouse with appropriate technological advances. Contributions will be used for the continuing renovation, furnishing the courtrooms and offices with historically appropriate furniture and accessories and adding technology that will enable the presentation and sharing of information while preserving the look and feel of an 1869 courthouse. Commissioner Albert stated that the courthouse was in such sad shape when the trial was held in Geauga County which is why they were selected to receive funds. Commissioner Samide added that Patrick Perotti a Partner from Dworken & Bernstein Company L.P.A. fought unrelentingly for cy pres.
