COMMON PLEAS COURT – NEW SPECIAL REVENUE FUND

Commissioner Albert questioned only one day of mediation and questioned if things changed. Mr. Lair stated the request is for a new revenue fund therefore they must be expecting funds from a new source. Mr. Taylor stated that other counties are using mediators to resolve custody issues and divorce cases more extensively than a magistrate. This will help solve domestic differences in a timely manner and Mr. Taylor stated that he hopes that is what is happening with the mediation fund. Commissioner Albert read the document quickly and reported it states there is an additional $25.00 charge to be collected by the Clerk of Courts. Commissioner Young questioned when this money is collected, if it is to be paid upfront or if it will be added to the Clerk of Courts collection program. Commissioner Albert will discuss that and the question of what happens if there is not enough money collected with Common Pleas.

Motion: by Commissioner Young, seconded by Commissioner Albert, to approve and authorize the Geauga County Auditor to establish a new special revenue fund be known as the Common Pleas Mediation Fund to allow for the proper accounting of revenues and expenditures for the purpose of providing for mediators in Common Pleas Court.
